Painter

Since childhood I always wanted to paint but my vocation in life was to become an engineer. In 2009 I decided to take up painting.

After a few years I enrolled in a painting course for adults by the award winning American Impressionist Artist, Barry John Raybould since I had fallen in love with his style. I was enrolled and followed the course for three years.

I try to encouraging a deeper connection with the beauty and complexity of life. My art is not just a reflection of what I see, but an expression of how I feel.
